IN CHARGE OF NEONATAL UNIT

Mary Elizabeth King

Miss Mary Elizabeth King, of Spout Spring, left Monday for Jackson, Mississippi to assume charge of a new Neonatal Nursing Unit in the University of Mississippi Hospital.

Neonatal nursing is the newest field in nursing in the field of child care. The Neonatal Unit furnishes intensive care for new born infants. Miss King will have six newly graduated nurses from the University of Mississippi in training under her direction.

She is a graduate of Appomattox High School, class of 1965. She studied two years at Longwood College, Farmville, followed by two years study at the University of Virginia. She has worked for the past two years in a unit similar to the one located at her new position, The Un. of Miss. Hospital Neonatal Unit contains a new BIRD machine, built especially for the hospital to care for babies with breathing difficulty.

Miss King is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. King.

Becky Harris Receives State FHA Degree

Miss Becky Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harris of Appomattox, Virginia was recipient of the State Homemakers Degree which is the top award given to individual members by the Virginia Association, Future Homemakers of America, at the Annual High School Awards Day held at Appomattox County High School, on June 8, 1971.

In awarding of this degree, Miss Harris was recognized for her outstanding contributions to her home and family, to her local, county, and State FHA organization, and her school and community. She has exemplified a keen interest in the welfare of her family and the improving of home and family living.

Carrying out the main purpose of the Future Homemakers of America, which is to "promote better home and family life for all", Miss Harris carried out the following home projects and activities: Her home projects included Consumer Education, Parties and Entertainment, Clothing Care and Construction and Foods.

Her activities for this year include attending FFA-FHA camp, FFA-FHA picnic and serving FFA banquet. She served as chairman of the Five County Fair Booth, which won first place. She was selected as outstanding FHA member for 1970-71.

As a leader in her local chapter at Appomattox County High School, she has assumed the following responsibilities: Planned and prepared programs for meetings; chairman of fair booth committee; member of banquet committee and nominating committee.

She has worked diligently to carry out the purposes of the organization which are designed to assist members to work for good home and family living.

With an international monetary crisis, an uncertain stock market, a fluctuating prime discount rate and disappearing tax shelters, shrewd buyers demand the most for their money.
